Dear Sir,

The FIA does not recognize the gender of a driver. The only driver requirement is an FIA license.

Questions/Comments: Does FIA recognize a Women's (Absolute) World Land Speed Record? Can't see it on the FIA lists. Since the AUTOMOBILE sets the record, driver gender does not play a role in the record performance. It seems to me all of these "Women's LSR" claims are spurious. Are there any FIA gender categories?
